SOPs for Exchange Programs at CMH, LMC & IOD

1. CMH Lahore Medical College & Institute of Dentistry will exchange students with numerous medical institutes in Pakistan including:
 - CMH-Kharian Medical College
 - Multan Institute of Health Sciences
 - Karachi Institute of Medical Sciences – KIMS
 - Bahawalpur Medical & Dental College (BMDC)
 - University of Health Sciences Lahore
 - The University of Lahore
 - King Edward Medical University
 - Lahore Medical & Dental College
2. Various Medical Colleges including foreign, with which we have “Memorandum of Understanding” will be approached for number of students to be registered for Students Exchange Program with respective institutes.
3. The procedure to apply for an exchange program is fairly simple, so rest assured you will not drown in an avalanche of recommendation forms and transcripts. An interested student would need to submit a Statement of Purpose, and it is later marked by a committee of faculty members for students exchange programs who review it.
Members are:
 - Prof Junaid Sarfaraz Khan (President)
 - Prof. Nazreen Sharif
 - Prof. Muhammad Siddique
 - The recommendations of committee will be put up to Chief Executive for approval.
4. A statement of purpose should highlight the student’s intent, drive and motivation for applying to the respective program. One of the more crucial facets of the application procedure is the academic standing of the applicant, which should not less than 70% marks.
5. The panel that sits to evaluate the application form also takes the student’s disciplinary status into account. The committee favors people who are not only have a strong academic footing, but are also involved in extracurricular activities happening around the campus.
